This pdf is fantastic. It typically is not going to price too much. You will not truly feel monotony at any time of your own time (that's what catalogs are for about if you request me).

Brindle and Glass Publishing, Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Hope's Last Home: Travels in Milk River Country, Tony Rees, South of Lethbridge, Alberta, Highway 62 climbs from the floor of an ancient glacial lake to the crest of a low ridge, crosses a continental divide and drops to meet the Milk River arching up from Montana. The austere, dry land within this great three-hundred-mile ellipse is home to the continents last vestiges of shortgrass plains and holds a history unique in all the Americas. Now parts of Montana, Alberta, and Saskatchewan, Milk River country has been at the centre of the epic boom-and-bust extremes that gave final shape to the Prairie West. It was the place where the last continental glaciers stalled and began to die. It was the ancient domain of the Blackfoot and Assiniboine people, and then, in the 150 years it took to settle the course of European empire in North America, it lived under the flags of five nations - France, Spain, Great Britain, the United States, and Canada. It was here, as European settlement encroached, that the remnant buffalo, the prairie wolf, and the plains grizzly waited out their final days. It was here that Sitting Bull and Little Soldier and Chief Joseph drew the final curtain on the brilliant horse cultures of the plains nations, here that cattlemen found their last free range, and here that the brief dreams of the last homesteaders dried up and blew away. Originally published in 1995 and short-listed for the 1996 Writers Guild of Alberta's award for non-fiction, "Hope's Last Home" is one of the very best books ever written about the West, an intimate journey into the fascinating history of a final frontier.
