His was the first house in the present 198 square miles of skyscrapers and miscellaneous structures known as Chicago. The rough house in the wilds along the lake may have the credit for being the foundation of the city. Point de Saible remained here seventeen years, traded with the Indians, trapped for skins, fought and drank whisky. Then in 1796 he sold his home to a Frenchman and went away to what is now Peoria. He was the first settler and property owner in Chicago. Point de Saible was a free colored man from Santo Domingo. To-day the city which that colored man founded is one of opportunity and freedom unexcelled for the man, woman or child of the Negro race. From all parts of America, especially from the southland, their eyes turn toward Chicago. Many of them come north. The influx has run into the thousands in the last few months. Colored Population Gaining. The colored portion of Chicago s population is growing more rapidly in proportion to its numbers than any other. Some persons see in it a danger to the future of the city. It is DEGREESadmittedly a very complex problem. The colored population is pushing out farther every day. It has broken out of the city blocks which a few years ago were called its own, until...
