Excerpt: . . . charters of incorporation this week in the Secretary of States office was the S. I. Bell Co. , of Camden. It is to deal in dry goods and general merchandise. The incorporators are: S. Irvine Bell, H. Harcourt Morrow, Gertrude R. Belott. The capital stock is 100, 000. An anniversary sale of cutlery is on this week at the Kaufman store. Silver table services are especially featured, because of the fact that the silver anniversary of the store is being commemorated. Bar glassware dealers throughout New Jersey are elated over the defeat in the Senate Tuesday of the local option bill. The vote was 14 to 6. The House of Assembly has yet to do with the measure, but it is thought that the local optionists will be given even a more severe set-back in that branch of the Legislature. The bill has been one of the most stubbornly contested of any that has made its appearance during the present legislative session. At a public hearing granted upon it a short time ago special trains were run to Trenton from different parts of the State bearing opponents to and supporters of the proposed law. Its passage would have been a severe blow to the bar glassware trade in this State, for there is little doubt that at subsequent elections in many towns and villages the local option people would have carried the day. R. B. Young, a Los Angeles, Cal. , architect, is preparing plans...
