You appear to have been particularly careful to avoid prolixity; and, at the same time, omitted nothing essential to a full comprehension of the subjects: this will render them more intelligible to the young student, as unnecessary minuteness, and too frequent repetition, only tend to embarrass and confuse him. I have no doubt but your publication will answer a good purpose, be a useful assistant to students in English Grammar, and receive from the public a liberal patronage. From David Ring, Esq. Principal of the East Baltimore Female Institute. Baltimore, Oct. 7, 1840. Sir: - I have examined with attention your work on English Grammar, and have no hesitation in expressing a favorable opinion of its merits.
