

Daughters of the American Revolution Magazine (Volume 10 )

By Daughters Of The Revolution

General Books. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 430 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.9in. This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1897 Excerpt: . . . formation of Chapter in Honolulu, also letter from Hon. Joseph E. Washington, regarding the Tennessee Centennial. President General. In connection with this matter the Chair simply expresses one wish and one hope, and that is, that every State Regent, and every Chapter Regent, and every Vice-President General and the Chair will pledge their support to the National Board of Management to assist in every way within their power in making this a grand celebration. Reader reads letter from General Joseph C. Breckinridge, as follows: Mrs. A. E. Stevenson, President General, National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, Washington, D. C. Madam: It may not be immediately practicable to bring the revolutionary soldiery under the care provided by the National Cemetery laws which only include those who died in the last war and in that with Mexico, but it seems that some decorous action by Congress...

DOWNLOAD

READ ONLINE

[ 5.1 MB ]

Reviews

Thorough guideline for publication fanatics. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. I am just effortlessly could possibly get a delight of reading a created book.

-- Terry Bailey

This book is definitely not effortless to start on reading through but extremely fun to learn. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

-- Aliya Franecki